|| BIO & ACTIVITY

FORGOTTEN FUTURE is the alias and solo project of platinum-album film & electronic music composer, sound designer Julius Dobos, who is known for his music in such cult movies and television shows as DragonBall Z, You Don't Mess with the Zohan, MallCop, NCIS.

Dobos launched the FORGOTTEN FUTURE project with the release of the album "W1" in early 2015. The album invited audiences for a musical journey that was unique and personal, both in its sound and in its concept.

Vincent Villius (Aes Dana of Ultimae Records) and dark ambient pioneer - mastering engineer Robert Rich also contributed to the production of the album.

W1 was hotly received by the psybient scene worldwide, and continues to enjoy the support of thousands of fans.

- 2015: Release of forgotten future: Realignment, featuring W1 remixes by producers Cubricon and BrokenSine.
- 2016: forgotten future draws the event's largest crowd to the electronic music stage at the Annual SubZERO Festival in Summer 2016, San Jose, California.
- 2016: AstroPilot Music releases forgotten future: Breakthrough [Chroma Mix] on the psybient compilation Colours II.

FORGOTTEN FUTURE

|| FRESH STYLE, UNIQUE SOUND

FORGOTTEN FUTURE is more than music. It is an expression of sonic & visual aesthetics, and philosophical concepts.

Evoking strong emotions and deep memories with minimalist and catchy melodies, dreamy textures and intricate driving rhythmic patterns, FORGOTTEN FUTURE creates a unique trance-influenced psybient electronic music experience in an original style of its own.

Unique soundscapes and glitch-y visual textures immediately capture the audience's attention, while the forward-driving head-bobbing percussion, rolling basslines, dynamic instrumentation and synced visuals hold listeners for a deep and memorable musical journey through each track.

FORGOTTEN FUTURE delivers an exciting LIVE PERFORMANCE using a mix of electronic instruments & dj tools.

|| PRESS & ACCOLADES

FORGOTTEN FUTURE has been praised and is regularly reviewed by the music press, radio, television and online programs worldwide, recently including Plugin Alliance TV, HighExistence Magazine, Sonible and the leading US electronic music radio show, Echoes (nationwide broadcast on NPR).

"Forgotten Future is detailed work. Many of the concepts find him questioning culture, religion and science, including Darwinism. Julius Dobos has the kind of musical chops that can bring a concept like this to life."
